FUN WITH GRAMMAR

We use simple past tense to denote a thing that has happened in the past. The second form of the verb (V_2) is used to denote it.

For example : Last month I went to Goa.

I wrote a story in the evening.

Here 'went' is the past tense of 'go' and 'wrote' is the past tense of 'write'.

- F. Fill in the blanks with the verbs given in the box.

ate bought gave went learnt hit fought

1. Mohit hit hard in the boxing ring.
2. My brother gave me a book last night.
3. Riya went to London four years ago.
4. Heena fought bravely.
5. I learnt a story in the class.
6. Tom ate a burger last evening.
7. Rajat bought a pen yesterday.

- G. Some verbs in the given passage have been wrongly used. Underline the incorrect verbs and correct them.

I go to a friend's birthday last week. We play many games. There were many mouth-watering dishes. We eat too much. We also go to the nearby park and play cricket. There are so many guests and his house is beautifully decorated.
